DECLARATION OF JOHN HIERONYMUS

1. I, John Hieronymus, hereby declare that I am the Forfeiture Counsel of the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), United States Department of Justice, and in that capacity supervise forfeiture activities within the DEA.

2. I affirm that, in the course of my official duties as Forfeiture Counsel of the DEA, I supervise and monitor the forfeiture activities of DEA field offices and receive reports and inquiries from those field offices regarding all facets of forfeiture matters.

3. I declare that material related to the property, which is the subject matter of the above-captioned action, is contained in one (1) file in my office.

4. The file, captioned as DEA Case No. KI-05-0058 and Asset Identification (I.D.) No. 05-DEA-456576, contains the following information:

(a) DEA Asset I.D. No. 05-DEA-456576 represents $543,190.00 U.S. Currency seized from Enrique Alcaraz-Barajas on August 29, 2005, in Montgomery, Alabama. The DEA office in Montgomery, Alabama adopted this seizure and subsequently prepared and submitted a forfeiture report to this office. An attorney or paralegal reviewed this report to determine if the DEA field office provided adequate information to support administrative forfeiture proceedings against the property. This procedure included a legal review of the evidence that existed to seize the $543,190.00 U.S. Currency. Based on this thorough review, the DEA accepted this case for administrative forfeiture.

(b) On October 17, 2005, pursuant to Title 19, United States Code (U.S.C.), Section 1607(a) and Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983(a), the DEA sent written notice of this seizure by certified mail, return receipt requested, to Mr. Enrique Alcaraz-Barajas, 16411 McFadden Avenue, Apt. 302, Tustin, CA 92780

UNCLAIMED" (Exhibit 2).

(c) On October 17, 2005, pursuant to Title 19, U.S.C., Section 1607(a) and Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983(a), the DEA sent written notice of this seizure by certified mail, return receipt requested, to Mr. Guillermo Mario Martinez, 1265-B East 14th Street, Santa Ana, CA 92701 (Exhibit 3). The U.S. Postal Service returned the notice to DEA stamped "RETURNED TO SENDER. NO SUCH NUMBER" (Exhibit 4).

(d) On October 17, 2005, pursuant to Title 19, U.S.C., Section 1607(a) and Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983(a), the DEA sent written notice of this seizure by certified mail, return receipt requested, to Esther A. Sandoval, 1022 West Highland, Apt. 8, Santa Ana, CA 92703 (Exhibit 5). After three delivery attempts, the U.S. Postal Service returned the notice to DEA stamped "RETURNED TO SENDER. UNCLAIMED" (Exhibit 6).

(e) Pursuant to Title 19, U.S.C., Section 1607(a) and Title 21, Code of Federal Regulations, Section 1316.75, the seizure of the property was published in THE WALL STREET JOURNAL, a newspaper of general circulation in the Middle District of Alabama (Exhibit 7). The notice was published once each week for three successive weeks: October 31, and November 7 and 14, 2005. The published and mailed notices explained the option of filing a claim with the DEA Forfeiture Counsel in order to contest the forfeiture action in United States District Court. Pursuant to Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983(a)(2)(B), the published and mailed notices also stated that the deadline to file a claim was November 21, 2005, or if the mailed notice was not received, December 14, 2005. In addition, the published and mailed notices explained the option of filing a petition for remission or mitigation.

NOTICE OF SEIZURE

The above-described property was seized by Special Agents of the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) for forfeiture pursuant to Title 21, United States Code (U.S.C.), Section 881, because the property was used or acquired as a result of a violation of the Controlled Substances Act (Title 21, U.S.C., Sections 801 et seq.). The seizure date and place, as well as other pertinent information regarding the property are listed above.

Pursuant to Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983 and Title 19, U.S.C., Sections 1602-1619, procedures to administratively forfeit this property are underway. You may petition the DEA for return of the property or your interest in the property (remission or mitigation), and/or you may contest the seizure and forfeiture of the property in Federal court. You should review the following procedures very carefully.

TO REQUEST REMISSION OR MITIGATION OF FORFEITURE

If you want to request the remission (pardon) or mitigation of the forfeiture, you must file a petition for remission or mitigation with the Forfeiture Counsel of the DEA within thirty (30) days of your receipt of this notice. The petition must include proof of your interest in the property and state the facts and circumstances which you believe justify remission or mitigation. The regulations governing the petition process are set forth in Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 9.

TO CONTEST THE FORFEITURE

In addition to, or in lieu of petitioning for remission or mitigation, you may contest the forfeiture of the seized property in UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT. To do so, you must file a claim with the Forfeiture Counsel of the DEA by November 21, 2005. The claim need not be made in any particular form (Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983(a)(2)(D)). The claim shall identify the specific property being claimed; state the claimant's interest in such property; and be made under oath, subject to penalty of perjury (Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983(a)(2)(C)). A frivolous claim may subject the claimant to a civil fine in an amount equal to ten (10) percent of the value of the forfeited property, but in no event will the fine be less than $250 or greater than $5,000 (Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983(h)). Upon the filing of a claim under Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983(a), a claimant may request, pursuant to Section 983(f), release of the seized property during the pendency of the forfeiture proceeding due to hardship. Requests must be sent to the Forfeiture Counsel of the DEA. The following property is not eligible for hardship release: contraband, currency, or other monetary instruments or electronic funds unless the property constitutes the assets of a legitimate business which has been seized; property to be used as evidence of a violation of the law; property, by reason of design or other characteristic, particularly suited for use in illegal activities; and property likely to be used to commit additional criminal acts if returned to the claimant. If you wish to contest the forfeiture of the asset, you must comply with the procedures set forth herein. Your failure to do so will result in the termination of your interest in the asset, and may preclude your contesting the forfeiture of the asset in any judicial proceeding - either civil or criminal - even if such a proceeding has already been commenced or is commenced in the future.

Comes Now ENRIQUE ALCARAZ-BARAJAS and files this notice of claim on seized U.S. Currency in the above referenced matter and states the claim as follows:

That late July 2005, I noticed a black plastic garbage bag near a pond outside a Hampton Inn in Tampa, Florida. Believing it to be abandoned, I moved the bag to some bushes outside the hotel. The next day, I looked inside to find bundles of U.S. currency. I made arrangements to secure the money in safe deposit boxes at a Tampa bank.

The money was later seized by Alabama State Troopers after a traffic stop in Montgomery, Alabama. When asked about the money I explained to the officers that I found the money. Upon additional interrogation, I was charged with impersonating a U.S. citizen. A complete search of the vehicle was completed without incident.

I did not file a report with the local police or attempt to locate the owner of the lost money. I was unsure of the process of staking a claim in relation to the currency, but would have if I had known there was a process for doing so.

I now, under oath and in fear of perjury, claim my interest in the money as finder of lost currency. I will waive any interest to the true and rightful owner should one come forward with proof of a superior claim.

NOTICE OF SEIZURE

The above-described property was seized by Special Agents of the Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) for forfeiture pursuant to Title 21, United States Code (U.S.C.), Section 881, because the property was used or acquired as a result of a violation of the Controlled Substances Act (Title 21, U.S.C., Sections 801 et seq.). The seizure date and place, as well as other pertinent information regarding the property are listed above.

Pursuant to Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983 and Title 21, U.S.C., Sections 1602-1619, procedures to administratively forfeit this property are underway. You may petition the DEA for return of the property or your interest in the property (remission or mitigation), and/or you may contest the seizure and forfeiture of the property in Federal court. You should review the following procedures very carefully.

TO REQUEST REMISSION OR MITIGATION OF FORFEITURE

If you want to request the remission (pardon) or mitigation of the forfeiture, you must file a petition for remission or mitigation with the Forfeiture Counsel of the DEA within thirty (30) days of your receipt of this notice. The petition must include proof of your interest in the property and state the facts and circumstances which you believe justify remission or mitigation. The regulations governing the petition process are set forth in Title 28, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 9.

TO CONTEST THE FORFEITURE

In addition to, or in lieu of petitioning for remission or mitigation, you may contest the forfeiture of the seized property in UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT. To do so, you must file a claim with the Forfeiture Counsel of the DEA by January 3, 2006. The claim need not be made in any particular form (Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983(a)(2)(D)). The claim shall identify the specific property being claimed; state the claimant's interest in such property; and be made under oath, subject to penalty of perjury (Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983(a)(2)(C)). A frivolous claim may subject the claimant to a civil fine in an amount equal to ten (10) percent of the value of the forfeited property, but in no event will the fine be less than $250 or greater than $5,000 (Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983(h)). Upon the filing of a claim under Title 18, U.S.C., Section 983(a), a claimant may request, pursuant to Section 983(f), release of the seized property during the pendency of the forfeiture proceeding due to hardship. Requests must be sent to the Forfeiture Counsel of the DEA. The following property is not eligible for hardship release: contraband, currency, or other monetary instruments or electronic funds unless the property constitutes the assets of a legitimate business which has been seized; property to be used as evidence of a violation of the law; property, by reason of design or other characteristic, particularly suited for use in illegal activities; and property likely to be used to commit additional criminal acts if returned to the claimant. If you wish to contest the forfeiture of the asset, you must comply with the procedures set forth herein. Your failure to do so will result in the termination of your interest in the asset, and may preclude your contesting the forfeiture of the asset in any judicial proceeding - either civil or criminal - even if such a proceeding has already been commenced or is commenced in the future.
